March 28, 2003 LB 216

received: 3,887. They disapproved 62 of them. They requested changes in 892 of them. And 109 of them were so bad they were withdrawn and dropped. Okay, so what's going to happen with that 892, that 109, and that 62? They're just going to be used now. They're just going to be used. So I wanted to bring this to your attention again, and ask you to think about this in terms of compromise again, and require the review of these forms at some point in time, even if you allow them to be filed first and used before they're reviewed. Because we're going too far in the other direction on this. And I can't believe the Governor of this state is going to approve this. And I would hope this Legislature wouldn't approve this in this form. And I'm sorry that the Department of Insurance feels so overwhelmed with work that they're willing to do something like this. This is a major come-back, drop-down, diminution of consumer protection in this state. And it has to do with the small business person, who most of you would argue in these times doesn't need...

SPEAKER BROMM: One minute.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ...the additional cost of lawyers looking at these forms. Mr. Speaker, thank you.

SPEAKER BROMM: Thank you, Senator Beutler. Senator Quandahl.

SENATOR QUANDAH: Thank you, Speaker Bromm, members of the body. This is a continuation of a discussion that we had on this bill not only on General File, but I believe on Select also. And I rise in opposition to the motion to return for a couple of different reasons. If I could just perhaps come forth with a theme, Senator Beutler's amendment would make it mandatory for the director, the Department of Insurance, to review these forms. The bill, as it is right now, makes that discretionary. And so this amendment would take away some of the discretion of the Department of Insurance and the director. And in...frankly, it's just not necessary. When we talk about the types of insurance that this affects, Senator Beutler says small ma and pa businesses. Well, it may be small ma and pa businesses too, but it's also large corporations, limited liability companies. This...these are business lines of
